ORDER

In a suit for remedies in respect of alleged infringement of trade mark, copyright and passing off, the plaintiff has applied for several interim remedies.

2. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submit that the dealership with the first defendant was terminated in 2016. He also submits that the plaintiff has discontinued the business of manufacturing and selling the conveyor belts in 2019. He also adverts to communication dated 07.11.2025 from the first defendant undertaking not to use the plaintiff's trade mark. In spite of issuing a cease and desist notice prior to the institution of the suit and initiating pre-suit mediation, learned counsel contends that the first defendant is continuing to put up stalls at exhibitions displaying the plaintiff's trade marks.

3. Considering the aforesaid, prima facie case is made out and an ad interim injunction is granted to restrain the defendants from using the plaintiff's marks in relation to its business until the next date of hearing. This order will not, however, stand in the way of the defendants selling the remaining stock of conveyor belts bearing the plaintiff's mark, provided such goods are genuine.

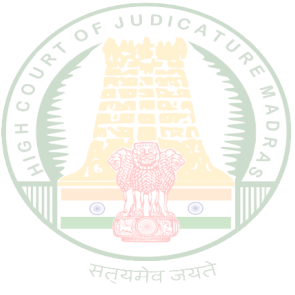

4. Issue notice to the respondents returnable on 22.06.2026. private notice is also permitted.

5. The applicant/plaintiff shall comply with Order XXXIX Rule 3 of Code of Civil Procedure.

6. List on 22.06.2026.
