ORDER

Present: Mr. Nakul Gandhi, Counsel for plaintiff.

Plaintiff instituted this suit for permanent and mandatory injunction to restrain defendant from infringing copyright and other statutory rights of plaintiff.

Issue summons for settlement of issues to defendants on filing of PF, Speed Post, Courier and E-mail for 08.09.2026.

I. A. No. 2/2026 Under Section 12A of Commercial Courts Act.

This application has been filed by plaintiff to institute the present suit without exhausting the remedy of pre-institution mediation under Section 12A of the Commercial Courts Act.

Since, the suit contemplates an urgent relief, plaintiff is exempted from resorting to pre-institution mediation. The application stands disposed of.

I. A. No. 3/2026 Under Order 11 Rule 1(4) CPC

I have heard Mr. Nakul Gandhi, Id. Counsel for plaintiff. Plaintiff is permitted to file additional documents within the statutory period.

I.A.No.1/2026 Under Order 39 Rule 1 & 2 CPC for ad-interim injunction.

1. For deciding this application, relevant facts stated in the plaint may be briefly noted as under :-

2. Plaintiff is a limited liability partnership incorporated under the provisions of Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008 and engaged in providing specialized online education, professional training, certification programs and digital learning resources in the fields of Big Data, Data Engineering, Cloud Technologies, Artificial Intelligence and allied domains. Roots of plaintiff can be traced to the establishment of 'TrendyTech' educational platform in the year 2017-18. Plaintiff operates through its official websites including <https://trendytech.in>, <https://courses.trendytech.in>, <https://trendytech.in>, <https://courses.bigdatabysunit.com> and <https://sql.trendytech.in> through which it hosts, distributes, markets and provides access to its proprietary educational courses, recorded lectures, live sessions, assignments, educational and audiovisual works. Plaintiff courses are available to enrolled users pursuant to specific contractual terms and conditions and constitute valuable proprietary assets under the provisions of Copyright Act 1957 and other applicable laws. Plaintiff is, thus, the author, owner and proprietor of a vast repository of original educational content, including but not limited to course curricula, training modules, lecture notes, presentation, etc. which constitutes original literary works, compilations, cinematograph films, sound recording which are protected under Section 13 & 14 of Copyright Act, 1957. Any unauthorised reproduction, recording, downloading, distribution, sale, etc. constitutes infringement of plaintiff's copyrights therein. Plaintiff is also the registered proprietary of device mark under registration no. 4147073 in Class 41 in respect of 'Education, providing of Training; Entertainment; Sporting and Cultural Activities included in Class 41 in respect of 'TrendyTech'.

3. Defendants particularly defendant no. 1,2, 3, 4, 7 & 8 are unlawfully offering for sale and distribution of plaintiff's proprietary course titled 'GDL TrendyTech Ultimate Big Data Masters Program' without plaintiff's licence or consent. The infringing listing prominently uses plaintiff's brand name 'TRENDYTECH' and advertises plaintiff's copyright course for sale at a price merely INR 199.

4. Plaintiff has placed on record screenshot of infringing platform/websites/domain name being used and operated by defendant as 'GDL TrendyTech Ultimate Big Data Masters Program' wherein plaintiff's brand name 'Trendytech' is being prominently displayed. It is clear from the averments of  plaintiff and documents placed therewith the plaintiff is the author of artwork involved in the course being offered by plaintiff under the title 'GDL TrendyTech Ultimate Big Data Masters Program'. Audiovisual lectures being hosted on plaintiff's learning platforms are the original cinematograph films and sound recordings while the underlying course materials, scripts, notes, presentations and educational content constitute original literary works within the meaning of Section 13 of Copyright Acts. It is also mentioned in the plaint that plaintiff has invested huge amount of money on promotion, advertisement and expansion of aforesaid educational programs being hosted online. Thus, plaintiff has succeeded in making out a prima facie case in its favour. Balance of convenience also lies in favour of plaintiff and against the defendants. Issuance of notice of application without injuncting defendants will seriously prejudice the plaintiff. Plaintiff will suffer irreparable loss and injury if interim injunction is not granted at this stage.

5. Accordingly, till next date of hearing i.e. 08.09.2026, defendants are restrained on following terms :-

a. Defendant No. 1, its agents, representatives, affiliates, associates, partners, employees, assigns, etc. are restrained from reproducing, recording, downloading, storing, hosting, uploading, publishing, distributing, communicating to the public, selling, offering for sale, transmitting, displaying, advertising, marketing, or otherwise exploiting the Plaintiff's copyrighted course materials, video lectures, educational content, study materials, assignments, training modules, and other proprietary works, or any substantial part thereof, in any manner whatsoever, without the prior authorization of the Plaintiff, till next date of hearing.

b. Defendant Nos. 1, 3, 4, 7 and 8 are directed to forthwith remove, disable access to, suspend, take down, and prevent further dissemination of the infringing posts, accounts, groups, pages, channels, URLs, and content identified in the present suit till next date of hearing.

c. Defendant Nos. 1, 3, 4, 5 & 6 are further directed to forthwith remove, disable access to websites, cease hosting, displaying, distributing, offering for sale, or making available the Plaintiff's copyrighted works and all other infringing content identified in the present suit and/ or mirror identical till next date of hearing.

d. Defendant Nos. 2, 5 and 6 are directed to preserve all available records, subscriber details, registration details, account information, payment records, email addresses, IP logs, device information, domain registration details, server information, and all other identifying particulars relating to Defendant No. 1 and the operators of the infringing websites, accounts, groups, pages, channels, and online locations, and not to delete, modify, or destroy the same till next date of hearing.

e. Defendant Nos. 5 and 6, and all concerned Internet Service Providers (ISPs), telecom service providers, domain name registrars, intermediaries, and other concerned entities are directed to block and disable access to all the infringing websites, webpages, URLs, mirror websites, redirect websites, alphanumeric websites, rogue websites, and other online locations identified in the present suit, including any additional mirror or redirect websites communicating the same infringing content, till next date of hearing.

f. Defendants are further restrained from hosting, communicating to the public, facilitating, permitting or otherwise making available any infringing content relating to the Plaintiffs' copyrighted works and/or other intellectual property rights on their respective platforms, and directing them to remove or disable access to any such infringing content, till next date of hearing.

6. Plaintiff shall comply with the provisions of Order 39 Rule 3 CPC within one week. At request, copy of this order be given dasti to ld. counsel for plaintiff.
