I.A. 24722/2026 (interim injunction)

21. By way of the present application filed under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 read with section 151 of the CPC, the plaintiff seeks the following interim reliefs:

a) Pass an ad-interim injunction restraining the Defendants, their directors, officers, servants, agents, representatives, affiliates and all persons acting on their behalf from using the mark "DURA" or any other mark identical with or deceptively similar to the Plaintiff's trademarks "DOORA", "DOORA EXPRESS SERVICES", "DOORA LOGISTICS" or associated marks;

b) Restrain the Defendants from using any logo, trade dress, business identity, domain name, website, social media handle, advertisement, marketing material or commercial representation likely to create confusion with the Plaintiff's business;

c) Restrain the Defendants from representing any association, affiliation, continuity or connection with the Plaintiff;

d) Restrain the Defendants from using, disclosing or exploiting any confidential information, customer information, pricing data, operational know-how or proprietary commercial information belonging to the Plaintiff;

e) Direct the Defendants to preserve all electronic records, emails, WhatsApp communications, accounting records, employee records, customer databases, invoices, GST filings, servers, computers and digital devices relevant to the subject matter of the present proceedings;

f) Pass such other and further orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

22. Learned counsel appearing for the plaintiff submits that the plaintiff is the registered proprietor and prior adopter of the trade marks 'DOORA', 'DOORA EXPRESS SERVICES', 'DOORA LOGISTICS' and associated device mark in Class 39. Learned counsel further submits that defendant No. 2 was employed as a General Manager of the plaintiff; and during the subsistence of his employment and while still in a fiduciary relationship with the plaintiff, on or about 31.10.2023, defendant No. 2 incorporated defendant No. 1 and commenced a competing logistics business with that of the plaintiff.
23. It has been submitted on behalf of the plaintiff that the impugned mark 'DURA' used by the defendants in relation to identical logistics and transportation services is phonetically, visually, structurally and commercially similar to the plaintiff's registered trade marks; and is likely to deceive, confuse, and mislead members of the trade and public.
24. The submissions are prima-facié borne-out from the record.
25. Issue notice.
26. Upon the plaintiff taking steps, let notice be sent to the defendants by all permissible modes, returnable for the next date before the learned Joint Registrar.
27. Let the notice indicate that reply to the application be filed within 30 days of service; rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed within 30 days thereafter; with copy to the opposing counsel.

28. Based on a preliminary appreciation of the matter, this court is of the view that the plaintiff has succeeded in making-out a prima-facie case in its favour; that the balance of convenience also lies in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendants; and it would appear that irreparable loss and injury would be caused to the plaintiff if the interim injunction as prayed-for is not granted.
29. Accordingly, an ad-interim order of injunction is passed in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendants in terms of prayers (a), (b), (c) and (e), as extracted above, till the next date of hearing.
30. Plaintiff is directed to comply with the provision of Order XXXIX Rule 3 CPC within 04 weeks.
31. List before the learned Joint Registrar on 04th December 2026.
32. List before court after completion of pleadings in the application.
