10. A perusal of the record shows that on the first date of hearing, i.e., 01.10.2026, a query was raised by this Court regarding the maintainability of the present suit within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court, as the infringing the trade mark of the plaintiffs have their addresses of Delhi or are operating from Delhi i.e. within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court.

16. Accordingly, let the plaint be registered as suit.

17. Issue summons to the defendants.

40. It is stated that the Plaintiffs maintain a significant online presence through their websites. Plaintiff No. 1 operates the website www.kotak.com, which it registered on 03.11.1995, along with over 300 other domain names containing the word “KOTAK”. Plaintiff No. 2 operates the website www.kotaksecurities.com, which it registered on 29.12.1999 and which now redirects users to its new domain, www.kotakneo.com, registered on 04.10.2022. Plaintiff No. 2 also holds over 36 domain names containing the word “KOTAK”.

41. It is stated that, to provide customers with a convenient banking experience, Plaintiff No. 1 has developed the “Kotak Mobile Banking App” (the “App”). It has recorded 98.3 lakh downloads on iOS devices and 15.41 crore downloads on Android devices.

42. Similarly, in 2011, plaintiff no. 2 developed the “Kotak Mobile Stock Trader” application to allow investors to transact in securities online easily and securely. On 09.03.2022, it introduced the “Kotak Neo” mobile application, designed to provide a seamless and intuitive experience for transacting in securities online. In view of the new application, the Kotak Stock Trader app was taken down from app stores on 08.04.2025.

43. It is stated that defendant no. 1 comprises John Doe defendants whose identities are presently unknown, but who are believed to be collectively carrying out fraudulent and infringing activities using the plaintiffs’ corporate names and their registered and well-known marks KOTAK,  and  (hereinafter referred to as Plaintiffs’ IP). They are doing so through various social media platforms and are targeting unwary investors within the jurisdiction of this Court.

44. It is stated that defendant no. 1 (John Doe) is misusing the plaintiffs’ trademarks surreptitiously, without disclosing its names, addresses or other details, through social media and messaging platforms owned and operated by defendant nos. 2 to 7. Defendant nos. 8 and 9 are proforma defendants, impleaded only to facilitate the implementation of the orders passed by this Court, namely:

- A. Meta Platforms, Inc. (defendant no. 2),
- B. WhatsApp LLC (defendant no. 3),
- C. Google LLC (defendant no. 4),
- D. Telegram FZ-LLC (defendant no. 5),
- E. X Corp. (defendant no. 6),
- F. LinkedIn Technology Information Private Limited (defendant no. 7),
- G. Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY) (defendant no. 8), and
- H. Department of Telecommunications (DoT) (defendant no. 9).

45. Mr. Pravin Anand, learned counsel for the plaintiffs submits that, during 2024, 2025 and 2026, numerous fraudsters, including Defendant No.1 (the unnamed parties), have approached unwary consumers and the Plaintiffs' clients and investors through social media platforms and WhatsApp and Telegram groups. They offer trading platforms and applications that bear the Plaintiffs' trademarks and impersonate Plaintiff No. 2's registered trading members (mostly its employees) and its genuine applications. Investors are induced to open accounts on the promise of guaranteed or high returns on investments in the securities markets.

46. He submits that these fraudsters offer to handle investors' trading and demat accounts, or to open accounts for them under an institutional framework, through various fake applications. Relying on these misrepresentations, several investors have unwittingly transferred funds as “investments”, in the hope of assured high returns. The funds were, however, transferred to private accounts, sole proprietorship firms or individuals, and the investors were thereafter unable to withdraw their money.

47. He submits that the plaintiffs have taken proactive steps to curb these activities, including filing criminal complaints with the police, but the fraud has not abated and has increased in recent months. After an extensive search in mid-2026, the plaintiffs compiled a list of hundreds of active fraudulent listings on the platforms of defendant nos. 2 to 7, through which defendant no. 1 (John Doe) impersonates the plaintiffs and dupes unwary consumers into parting with their hard-earned money on false promises of assured high returns.

48. He further submits that the Plaintiffs have not authorised any of these online accounts, channels, groups or listings. Defendant No. 1 (John Doe) is infringing the Plaintiffs’ registered trademarks under Section 29(2)(c) of the Trade Marks Act, 1999, and is passing off its fraudulent Ponzi schemes as genuine offerings of the Plaintiffs.

49. He contends that the plaintiffs have received over 100 client complaints, wherein innocent investors have lost sums ranging from Rs. 1 Lakh to Rs. 10 Lakhs each to bank accounts operated by such fraudsters. Apart from causing incalculable and irreversible damage to the plaintiffs’ goodwill and well-known trademarks, the continuation of these activities poses a grave threat to the public interest and to investors at large.

50. Having heard the learned counsel for the plaintiffs, and upon perusal of the averments made in the Plaint, the information furnished by defendant nos. 5 and 7, the documents filed with the Plaint and the additional documents filed on 14th October 2026 vide Diary No. E-442395/2026, I am of the view that the plaintiffs have made out a prima facie case for grant of an ad-interim injunction against the defendants. The balance of convenience lies in favour of the plaintiffs and they are likely to suffer irreparable harm and injury, besides financial prejudice to the general public and unwary investors, in case the ad-interim injunction, as prayed for, is not granted.

51. Accordingly, till the next date of hearing, the following directions are passed:

(i) Defendant No. 1 / John Doe(s) and all others acting on their behalf are restrained from using or exploiting or misappropriating Plaintiffs' brands, goodwill, names including 'KOTAK', 'KOTAK

and all associated logos and other identifying attributes or any deceptively similar variants thereof, for any commercial and / or personal gain and / or otherwise by exploiting them in any manner whatsoever, without Plaintiffs' consent and / or authorisation;

(ii) Defendant No. 1 / John Doe(s) and all others acting on their behalf are restrained from misrepresenting as the Plaintiffs, its MDs and / or CEOs and / or its employees and / or its authorised representatives on any medium, including but not limited to digital platforms, website, mobile applications, groups and social media so that there is no dilution of plaintiffs' brands and reputation and are further restrained from passing off their services as those of the plaintiffs by use of any logo or expressions that are identical or deceptively similar to those of the plaintiffs;

(iii) Defendant nos. 2 to 7 are directed to pull down all infringing websites and / or infringing social media accounts and / or any other fraudulent and infringing links, specifically those identified by the plaintiffs and appended to this order as Annexure-A and B, which unlawfully infringe the plaintiffs' registered 'Kotak' trademarks and logos or any other deceptively similar mark thereto and provide the plaintiffs with the name, contact details, ID proof, photographs and other KYC details of the person(s) who own and operates such websites, social media accounts and links.

(iv) Defendant nos. 8 (MeitY) and 9 (DoT) are directed to issue necessary notifications/directions to all ISPs and TSPs for blocking/removing access to the infringer websites as given in Annexure-A and B appended to this order.

52. Issue Notice.

53. Mr. Raheel Kohli, learned counsel appearing on behalf of defendant no.2, Mr. Ankit Agarwal, learned counsel appearing on behalf of defendant no.4 and Mr. Abhishek K. Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of defendant no.7 accept, accepts notice.

54. On plaintiff taking steps, notice be served upon the unrepresented defendants by all permissible modes including speed post, courier, e-mail, etc.

55. Let reply to the application be filed within a period of four weeks. Rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed before the next date.

56. Provision of Order XXXIX Rule 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 be carried out qua the unrepresented defendants within a period of two weeks from today, and an affidavit of compliance be filed within one week thereafter.

57. List before the learned Joint Registrar for completion of service and pleadings on 07.12.2026.

58. List before the Court on 08.02.2027.
